

Who We Are

ENEOS Research Institute, Ltd. is a research and consulting firm wholly owned by ENEOS Holdings, Inc. The ENEOS Group is aiming to become one of the largest integrated energy, resources and materials business groups in the world.

ENEOS Holdings was established through a joint share transfer by Nippon Oil Corporation and Nippon Mining Holdings, Inc. On July 1, 2010, all the businesses of the group companies were integrated, restructured and reorganized under ENEOS Holdings, resulting in the incorporation of three core business companies; Petroleum Refining and Marketing Business Company, Oil and Natural Gas Exploration and Production Business Company and Metals Business Company.

ENEOS Research Institute's experienced staff, based on the accumulated expertise and know-how of the ENEOS Group, formulate proposals and provide consulting services.
